

TURNING THE TIDE

Training for social action

Turning the Tide offers a diverse range of workshops, courses and resources, but all our work is focused on supporting groups at the grassroots to work for nonviolent social change.

Workshops

Turning the Tide offers training for free on request: we only ask for a donation of travel expenses for our trainers.

We can help with:

- Planning effective nonviolent campaigns
- Making your social change work more sustainable
- Tools for better group working, including facilitation skills training

Resources

Our online toolkit contains resources for running your own training for social action: www.turningtide.org.uk/toolkit

Stay in touch!

Receive updates from us about upcoming courses and public workshops as well as articles about nonviolent social change:
