BEING AN INCLUSIVE FAITH COMMUNITY

Residential - £245

Friday 1 - Sunday 3 March 2019

This course will ask how inclusion is rooted in our theology, how inclusion is different to diversity, and how we can include all people in our faith communities, regardless of economic power, gender, mental health, physical ability, race or sexuality.

A FRIENDLY INTRODUCTION TO GENDER DIVERSITY

Residential - £245

Friday 15 - Sunday 17 March 2019

An opportunity to explore the distinctive role of Quaker meetings in embracing the richness of gender diversity based on our testimonies.

TRANSFORMING THE WORLD

Residential - £245

Friday 15 - Sunday 17 March 2019

How can we, as Quakers, bring about non-violent, peaceful transformation in our Meetings, in our families, in our workplaces, in our society, and in the world? In this course, we will explore together how transformation starts and unfolds – and how we can make it happen. We will learn from Quaker history and experience, as well as from current creative approaches, to better understand our roles in bringing about transformation in line with our testimonies.

BECOMING A QUAKER DIVERSITY ALLY

Residential - £165

Friday 17 - Sunday 19 May 2019

How can we as Friends become more effective allies in the fight for racial justice and racial healing in our lives, in our communities, and beyond.

ENQUIRING INTO QUAKER DIVERSITY AND INCLUSION

Residential - £165

Friday 2 - Sunday 4 August 2019

This course will use the P4C (Philosophy for Communities) methodology which enables in-depth enquiry into matters of belief and ethics. This approach creates a positive environment for deep discussion and safe disagreement. Participants will be given the opportunity to have an in-depth discussion of the deeper meaning and implications of diversity and inclusion. The group will create their own questions to explore what diversity and inclusion mean in practice for Quakers.
