

Quaker Life

Getting in touch

Quaker Life works to strengthen and sustain the fabric of Quaker life within our Yearly Meeting.

We can provide training, advice and support, and welcome comment and information about best practice in meetings. We are also seeking to develop a network of interested Friends to support our work and help Friends learn from each other's experience.

Please keep this list of contacts for handy reference.

Quaker Life
Friends House
173 Euston Road
London NW1 2BJ

Tel: 020 7663 1140

Email: ql@quaker.org.uk

Website: www.quaker.org.uk

September 2008

Children and young people

Training, information, resources for local meetings and regional groups, running national events.

Tel: 020 7663 1013

Email: bevelies@quaker.org.uk

Criminal records checks

Sending out Criminal Records Bureau and Disclosure Scotland forms for criminal records checks (one aspect of safeguarding for children and vulnerable adults).

Tel: 020 7663 1029

Email: philipi@quaker.org.uk

Diversity and inclusion

Helping meetings to become more inclusive and to foster a greater understanding of our diversity.

Tel: 020 7663 1023

Email: michaelsb@quaker.org.uk

Library

Friends House Library can provide advice on how to run a meeting library or look after a meeting's records. As the largest and oldest library of Quakerism in Britain it is a rich resource for meetings and individuals researching Quaker history.

Tel: 020 7663 1135

Email: library@quaker.org.uk

Meeting safety

Offering meetings guidance on obtaining information on good practice in ensuring the safety of children and young people and vulnerable adults in our meetings and activities.

Tel: 020 7663 1023

Email: michaelsb@quaker.org.uk

Outreach

National Quaker Week, advice and support on running local outreach events, enquirers' and considering membership weekends, and support for university chaplains.

Tel: 020 7663 1017

Email: carmelk@quaker.org.uk

Pastoral care (including eldership and oversight)

Responding to specific enquiries, offering support to meetings through training in partnership with Woodbrooke.

Tel: 020 7663 1023

Email: michaelsb@quaker.org.uk

Quaker Life Network

The Quaker Life Network is a group of Friends who have time, energy, skill and expertise, and are willing and able to share their experience with other Friends in appropriate ways. Network members may be called upon to assist in any part of Quaker Life's remit.

Tel: 020 7663 1023

Email: michaelsb@quaker.org.uk

Quaker Life Resources Room

The Resources Room provides a service to meetings, groups and individuals with a focus on supporting and developing learning. It is a useful collection of items such as books, study packs, games and audio-visual materials. The service is free.

Tel: 020 7663 1013

Email: bevelies@quaker.org.uk

Quaker Monthly

A monthly magazine that reflects the wide range of Quaker spirituality through articles, poems and photographs.

Tel: 020 8446 5772

Email: qm@quaker.org.uk

Swarthmoor Hall

The home of George Fox, principal founder of the Quaker movement, Swarthmoor Hall has historic rooms open to the public and offers individual and group accommodation and a number of courses and retreats throughout the year.

Tel: 01229 583204

Email: info@swarthmoorhall.co.uk

Wardenship and employment

Training and support for Quaker employers and employees, supporting and developing the roles of meeting house wardens etc.

Tel: 020 7663 1096

Email: wardenship@quaker.org.uk