FACILITATION & LEADERSHIP

ABOUT...

This invigorating weekend for young Quakers will help you understand groups. You'll explore theories and try out facilitation and leadership skills. For those new to facilitation and for those with previous experience.

This event will enable you to develop your confidence; understanding and skills alongside considering how to engage with aspects of facilitating Quaker groups.

What are the aims of this weekend?

- Understanding community.
- Exploring how groups form and how they work together.
- Considering how to plan for facilitation.
- Understanding characters in groups.
- Understanding the importance of equal opportunities to facilitation.
- Learning about facilitating Quaker groups.

WHO...

Simon Best is Head of Learning at Woodbrooke. He is passionate about creating opportunities for Quakers to learn and individually and together.

Catherine Waithaka is the Quaker Life Youth Participation Officer. She is committed to furthering opportunities for Young Friends to engage with the wider Quaker community.

with CYP Team volunteers who have experience of working with facilitating and leading groups
