Governance

1. Why have a book of discipline?

Friday 8 to Sunday 10 November 2019, Woodbrooke

Britain Yearly Meeting is at the beginning of the process of revising our Book of Discipline, Quaker faith & practice. This weekend event is an opportunity for representatives from area meetings and other interested Friends to join members of the Book of Discipline Revision Committee to explore the continuing importance of having a Book of Discipline and consider what we want it to do for us in the future. Open to anyone aged 13 and over. See flyer for full details.

For information: 0121 472 5171, email enquiries@woodbrooke.org.uk
www.woodbrooke.org.uk/book-of-discipline

If your AM wants someone to attend, please start the appointment process. AM places will be kept until 23 September.

Mental Health

2. Mental health – an offer to area meetings

An invitation to area meetings to engage in exploring mental health, whether within the context of the Quaker community or wider societal issues. For further information contact:
