

Quaker Peace
& Social Witness

Journeys of Witness QPSW Annual Spring Conference

23 – 25 MARCH 2018
HAYES CONFERENCE CENTRE, SWANWICK, DERBYSHIRE

Quaker witness takes many forms – it can be both personal and shared, loud and quiet, lifelong and sporadic, depleting and nourishing.

Quaker Peace and Social Witness seeks to support Friends individually in their lives, jointly in their meetings and in Britain Yearly Meeting, to translate our faith into action and to be part of a movement for positive social change.

Come and find out more about the work of Quaker Peace and Social Witness, how we work in the world on behalf of Friends and how you can get involved. And you can tell us how we can best support you and your meeting.

You will have the opportunity to meet and mingle with some of those who deliver the programmes of work. You will learn how work is discerned and overseen by Friends and there will be ample opportunity to reflect on what you have heard and to get to know other Friends.

The Conference is particularly aimed at:

- QPSW Correspondents
- New Friends/Attendees
- Those new to the work of QPSW

We will spend some time looking at how QPSW work is contributing to progressing the Yearly Meeting commitments to economic justice and sustainability, and how we are challenging the rise of militarism in schools and wider society. We hope the following work programmes will be amongst those featured:-

- Economic Issues
- Sustainability and Peace
- Peace Campaigning and Networking
- Peace Education
- Ecumenical Accompaniment Programme in Israel Palestine
- One Year UK Peaceworker Placements
