The Changing Face of Faith in Britain, how should Quakers respond?

Friday 16 – Sunday 18 March, 2018

The Quaker Committee for Christian and Interfaith Relations invites Area Meetings to nominate representatives to this important conference which will examine the challenge for Friends in the growth of 'secular society' and changes to traditional religious expression.

Keynote speaker: Grace Davie, professor emeritus at the University of Exeter and author of Religion in Britain: A Persistent Paradox. She is interested in the changing nature and growing significance of religion in the modern world.

QCCIR has recently commissioned research into the impact the changing face of faith expression is having on Quakers. This has been undertaken by the Centre for Research in Quaker Studies at Woodbrooke.

Over the weekend we will look at how Quakers fit in to wider societal changes, hear from Francesca Montemaggi and Ben Pink Dandelion about the results of the research commissioned by QCCIR and consider where this might lead us.

Your Area Meeting is invited to nominate a Friend to participate in this conference at Woodbrooke

Clerk: please give one copy of this leaflet to your nominating group so they have the information above, and give the other to the person you appoint so they can book their place. As Area Meetings are nominating people to attend we expect AMs will pay, please let your treasurer know so that they can arrange payment.

Appointed Friend: Please complete the booking form with your details and return it to Woodbrooke as soon as possible and by 31st January at latest.

Booking queries: If you have any questions in relation to booking a place on the conference or would like an electronic booking form please email enquiries@woobrooke.org.uk or telephone 0121 472 5171.

The conference will be open to bookings by individual Friends after 31st January 2018.
