Attending Friends House

Yearly Meeting, November 2026

Welcome and Pastoral Support

Please arrive via the garden entrance. There is no formal provision for pastoral support, but Staff and Friends will be on hand to welcome you.

Events

All events are in Friends House and online. Please use the electronic noticeboards for information. Yearly Meeting will take place in the Large Meeting House (the Light).

Quaker Centre café & bookshop

Lunch will be available for purchase in advance. Sandwiches can be bought in the café on the day. The bookshop will be open; check electronic noticeboard for opening times. There will be space in the courtyard, bookshop, and café to meet and have a coffee.

Library

The Library will be open over lunchtime for Friends to come in and ask questions. It will not be possible to fetch items from the stores.

Compiled for Yearly Meeting, London and online – 21 November 2026

Quakers in Britain and Woodbrooke stands

The Quakers in Britain and Woodbrooke stands will be in the East Corridor. Members of staff from Quakers in Britain and Woodbrooke will be available at various times of the day to meet and answer any questions about the work.

Quiet Space

The Quaker Centre Worship Space (to the rear of the bookshop) is available for quiet worship, sitting quietly or quiet activity (e.g. knitting).

Toilet Facilities at Friends House

All public toilets are trans inclusive. A range of accessible, self-contained, and gendered toilet options are available throughout the building.

Basement: One accessible toilet with baby-changing facilities; one self-contained cubicle.

Ground Floor: Women's toilets (18 cubicles) and men's toilets (six cubicles plus urinals), both with baby-changing facilities; two accessible toilets, one with a shower.

First Floor: Toilets reserved for children and young people only.

Second Floor: Nine self-contained cubicles open to all Friends, including one accessible cubicle. All have a toilet, basin, hand dryer, and baby-changing facilities.

All Yearly Meeting documents in advance can be downloaded from our website.
